

tracornunnicato

Pidgin & n. 1. a. - English, jargon chiefly of English words used between Chinese and Europeans. 2. Simplified English or other language to form communication between persons of different nationality etc.; = PIGEON2 [corrupt of business] oed

Handwritten notes in Chinese characters, including the word 'pidgin' and other linguistic terms.

Handwritten notes in Chinese characters, including the word 'pidgin' and other linguistic terms.

Vernacular

superstrate
 break-in transmission
 dignised
 linguistic compromise

Intertwined language
 linguistic innovation
 linguistic innovation
 Reduplicate

Break in transmission

lexical expansion
 token/interrupted transmission code-switching
 linguistic attrition

Drift
 Synergy
 Pragmatic transfer Creolization
 Reduplicate

rammatical permeability archaism phenomena
 eep -> sifp -> siflip -> jiflp -> jiflp Snake -> snake -> sinei Interruption of continuity

snake -> sinei